

Workshop „Food Policies in Southeastern Europe during the Second World War”

Date: 28-30 October 2021

Venue: Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Unter den Linden 6, Room 2249a

Conveners: Xavier Bougarel (CETOBaC, Paris), Paolo Fonzi (University of Eastern Piedmont), Hannes Grandits (HU Berlin), Sabine Rutar (IOS, Regensburg)

Preliminary Program

Thursday, 28 October 2021

14:00-15:00 Introductory Roundtable

Xavier Bougarel (Centre for Turkish, Ottoman, Balkan and Central Asian Studies, Paris),
Paolo Fonzi (University of Eastern Piedmont, Vercelli),
Hannes Grandits (Chair of South-Eastern European History, HU Berlin),
Sabine Rutar (Leibniz Institute for Research on Eastern and South-Eastern Europe, Regensburg)

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-17:30 Panel 1

The battle for Food: Thessaly during the Second World War

Paolo Fonzi (University of Eastern Piedmont, Vercelli)

Survival and equity: Food policies of the Partisans in Western Bosnia

Xavier Bougarel (Centre for Turkish, Ottoman, Balkan and Central Asian Studies, Paris)

20:00 Dinner

Friday, 29 October 2021

10:00-12:00 Panel 2

Food, politics, and humanitarian work in occupied Greece

Violetta Hionidou (University of Newcastle)

Food and famine in Central Dalmatia during the Second World War

Nikica Barić (Croatian Historical Institute, Zagreb)

12:00-13:30 Lunch Break (Catering at the Venue)

13:30-15:30 Panel 3

Food insecurity and conflict dynamics: The case of Thesprotia/Chameria
Spyros Tsoutsoumpis (New Europe College, Bucharest)

Food policies in the areas controlled by the Albanian National Liberation Movement
Markenc Lorenci (Roma Tre University, Rome)

15:30-16:00 Coffee Break

16:00-18:00 Panel 4

Social conditions for the development of the Yugoslav National Liberation Movement: The case of salt in Croatia

Domna Koffa (National Centre for Social Research, Athens)

Bread and war. Bakers facing the Second World War in Serbia
Stefano Petrungero (Ca' Foscari University, Venice)

20:00 Dinner at Joseph-Roth-Diele

Saturday, 30 October 2021

09:00-11:00 Panel 5

An almost impossible mission: The Zagreb Community and its efforts to provide concentration inmates with food

Marija Vulesica (Alfred Landecker Foundation, HU Berlin)

Food diets in Yugoslav mining industries during the German Occupation

Sabine Rutar (Leibniz Institute for Research on Eastern and South-Eastern Europe, Regensburg)

11:00-11:30 Coffee Break

11:30-12:30 Conclusive Discussion