

Workshop

The Republic of Moldova: A hesitant transformation

18/12/2012

With the support of the Southeast Europe Association (SOG), the European Academy Berlin and the Franco-German University, in collaboration with the Chair for South-East European History of the Institute of Historical Studies at the Humboldt University in Berlin and the Centre Marc Bloch

Presentations and discussions will be held in French, German and English.

Free entrance.

Monday, December 17 2012

18h

Mama Illegal
By Ed Moschitz
Film screening

Venue :

Centre Marc Bloch
Friedrichstrasse 191
Berlin
Room Georg Simmel

Tuesday, December 18 2012

9h-17h

Workshop

Venue:

Centre Marc Bloch
Friedrichstrasse 191
Berlin
Room Georg Simmel

19h

Round-Table

Erfolgsmodell Republik Moldau?
EU-Nachbarschaftspolitik im Praxistest

Venue :

Europäische Akademie Berlin
Bismarckallee 46/48
Berlin-Grunewald

Detailed program of the workshop

9h-9h15

Opening of the Workshop

Julien Danero Iglesias – Université libre de Bruxelles

Djordje Tomic - Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

9h15-11h15

Panel 1: Political Processes in a new and independent state

Chair:

Denis Thouard – Centre Marc Bloch

Discussant:

Djordje Tomic - Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Igor Casu – Universitea de Stat din Moldova

The Republic of Moldova from Perestroika to Independence: Change in Government and Elites' Reproduction

Snejana Sulima – Universitatea « Al.I. Cuza », Iași

The Electoral Reform – The Key to the reading of the democratic transition in Moldova (in French)

Dragoș Dragoman – Universitatea « Lucian Blaga », Sibiu

Moldova between East and West, past and present. How do the citizens view the transition and the support for an (incomplete) democracy?

Iulia Modiga – Universitatea din București

The Demonstrations of April 2009

Worlds and social dramas in a post-electoral context. (in French)

11h15-11h30 Coffee Break

11h30-13h30

Panel 2: Questions of Identity

Chair:

Hannes Grandits – Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

Discussant:

Christoffer Störup – University of Copenhagen

Wim Van Meurs – Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen

The Moldovan nation - construction and success

Andrei Cusco – Universitatea Pedagogica de Stat « Ion Creanga », Chisinau

Memory politics in independent Moldova

George Enache - Universitatea « Dunărea de Jos », Galați

Cristian Căldăraru - Muzeul de Istorie Galați

“Holy Russia” and the identity problem of the inhabitants of the Republic of Moldova after 1991 (in French)

Aurelia Felea - Universitatea Liberă Internațională din Moldova, Chisinau

Moldovan perceptions about religious minorities

13h30-14h30 Lunch

14h30-16h15

Panel 3: Moldova and the Outside World (in French)

Chair:

Beatrice Von Hirschhausen – Centre Marc Bloch

Discussant:

Julien Danero Iglesias - Université libre de Bruxelles

Eva Posch – SOEGA – Karl-Franzens-Universität Graz

A Current touristic historiography from the Republic of Moldova

Identity, spatial and historical conceptions around Stefan cel Mare and the Principality of Moldavia (in German)

Ruxandra Ivan – Universitatea din București

“Our brothers beyond the Prut”: the troubled political relations between Romania and the Republic of Moldova (in French)

Elsa Tulmets - Marie Curie Fellow CERI / Sciences Po (To be confirmed)

Laure Delcour - ENA Strasbourg

Moldova and the European Neighbourhood Policy: What type of partnership? (in French)

16h15-16h30 Coffee Break

16h30-17h

Concluding Panel

Petru Negura – Universitatea Pedagogică de Stat « Ion Creangă »