

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE . . . . .	XI
PREFACE TO THE GERMAN VERSION . . . . .	XV
INTRODUCTION: HISTORIOGRAPHY ABOUT HISTORIOGRAPHY . . . . .	1
CHAPTER I. STATE OF RESEARCH – AIMS OF THE INQUIRY. . . . .	7
1. Edessa 1897 . . . . .	7
2. ‘A valuable collection of material’ . . . . .	11
3. Research perspectives . . . . .	14
CHAPTER II. APPROACH TO UNIVERSAL HISTORIOGRAPHY IN THE SYRIAC ORTHODOX TRADITION . . . . .	19
1. Historical premises: Eastern Christians . . . . .	19
2. Historiographical conditions: Christian world chrono- graphy and ecclesiastical historiography . . . . .	27
a. Chronicle: definition of the concept . . . . .	27
b. Beyond the ‘horrible wide grave’: the inventions of Eusebius of Caesarea . . . . .	33
3. Universal historiography in the Syriac Orthodox tradition	39
a. Survey . . . . .	39
b. Discussion . . . . .	43
CHAPTER III. PATRIARCH MŌR MICHAEL RABBŌ AND HIS TIME . . . . .	49
1. Scope of the chapter, remarks on the sources . . . . .	49
2. The world on the threshold of the 12 th century from Michael’s perspective . . . . .	52
3. Antioch – Edessa – Melitene – Amid . . . . .	56
4. The Syriac Orthodox Church in crisis . . . . .	63
5. The candidate of the reformers: Raban Michael and the great deeds of Mōr Bar Ṣawmō . . . . .	67
6. Michael I, Patriarch of Antioch: a methodological problem	74
7. Investiture, programme, realization . . . . .	78
8. An honoured man: the first years . . . . .	81
9. Parte a se . . . . .	89
10. Limits of power . . . . .	93